

Solidarity Statement - 2nd September 2016

This statement from mm&P is to show solidarity with individuals and groups who have been struggling to get their rights over land and resources. We salute the people of Singur who have withstood many trials for the Land mark judgement by Supreme Court of India. We hope the struggle will continue with new faces and new problems.

We also like to take this opportunity to affirm our solidarity with all those individuals and groups who are standing up to the Governments which continue their hegemony by amending laws to benefit a few.

About mm&P

mm&P (mines, minerals & PEOPLE) is a growing alliance of individuals, institutions and communities who are concerned and affected by mining. The isolated struggles of different groups have led us to form broad national alliance for combating the destructive nature of mining. mm&P network is present in 16 states across the country. Currently mm&P, apart from focusing on mining, also looks at issues that cover Women and Children, Health, Governance and Environment.
